MRS. MARIA ANDUJAR, seated left, an Albright College student and a member of Reading's Spanish-speaking community, receives a monetary award from Mrs. Anivel A. Cruz, left, San German, Puerto Rico, secretary of District II of Altrusa International, at a luncheon Thursday in the Lincoln Motor Inn. The event was sponsored by the Reading Altrusa Club. Other principals are Mrs. Luis F. Sambolin, seated right, San German, president of District II, and, standing from second left, Eleanore Peterson, Saddle River, N.J., governor-elect of District II, and Mrs. Ralph K. Miller, Reading member and luncheon chairman.—Eagle Photo.

Christmas Music To Feature Meeting

The Ladies' Auxiliary of DeMolay Commandery No. 9, will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, West Reading, for a program of Christmas music by the pupils of Kathryn Schiffner.

On Tuesday, Dec. 17, Reading Commandery No. 42 and its Auxiliary will sponsor the annual Christmas service in the Masonic Temple's Blue Room at 7:30 p.m.

TURKEY DINNER and
CHRISTMAS BAZAAR
SCHWARZWALD
United Church of Christ on Boyertown Pike at Jacksonwald
Sat., Dec. 7 — 3 to 8 P.M.
Adults $3.50—Children $1.75
— Dessert Included —

Cookie
Homem
sold by m
Family S
Catholic nut street
this Satu
Dec. 14, 6 p.m. a
and this
Dec. 15, 8 a.m., 1
Masses.

AM
FA
Rts.
Dougla
Phone

looking Before t
STOP AT CA